

When the road turns to dirt, there was a plain view & is a large painted boulder on the right by the road near the oak trees. The trail goes left just before reaching the point oak tree thicket, just after the end of the valley.

